Neil and John,

On behalf of Walker Industries and all of our subsidiary companies I would like to thank you both for doing such a wonderful job. By showing a tremendous amount of dedication and persistence you have significantly reduced the telecommunication costs throughout our entire group.

The professionalism and support in dealing with not only myself but the rest of my support team was second to none. The process was painless and your attention to detail was much appreciated and made the justification of your services very worth while.

I would be more than glad to recommend your services to anyone in the future.

I look forward to continuing my working relationship with both yourselves and the Schooley Mitchell team in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Armand J. Del Busso
