Dear Professional,

Abbott- Action is an industry leading specialty corrugated packaging manufacturer based in the Northeast. Abbott- Action has successfully been in operation since 1935 as a privately owned and operating company serving the sophisticated packaging needs of our clients.

In 2008 Abbott- Action contracted the services of Ted Kern with Schooley Mitchell for the purpose of optimizing our wireless telecommunication cost structure Based on Schooley Mitchell due diligence, service recommendations and monthly monitoring of all our voice and data wireless services we have reduced our cellular expenses over 25% since we signed a service agreement with Schooley Mitchell. Ultimately managing multiple wireless services providers and the constant industry changes made the decision to out source this time consuming task a positive one for our bottom line.

I would highly recommend the services of Ted Kern of Schooley Mitchell Telecom Consultants for any firm that is seeking to further optimize their wireless telecommunication cost structure and assist businesses stay ahead of the latest wireless service applications to help run your business more productively and profitable.

Sincerely,
