Mr. McKelvy:

I wanted to say thanks to you and Schooley Mitchell for the support and service you are providing Gates Antiques. Your services saved us 28% on our telephone, internet and wireless costs which is great particularly in the current economic environment. You also have been available to give me quick answers to daily questions and issues I have faced.

Rarely do I have the time or desire to learn all I need to know about or to manage my business communications, but they are a necessity. These services are also expensive and the industry changes rapidly. It is great to know Gates Antiques has a business partner with this expertise watching the industry for opportunities on our behalf.

Thanks again for the support.

Sincerely,

Jay Gates
Vice President
