Dear Chamber Member:

The Houston Northwest Chamber of Commerce recently contracted with fellow chamber member Schooley Mitchell to offer a risk-free review of our existing merchant services. They researched our records for errors and overpriced fees based on a comparison of equal or better service offerings.

Upon completion of the review of the Chamber's merchant services, they found a cost savings alternative and we were able to reduce our annual merchant services expenses by 27%. We were very pleased with the results of the professional review performed by Schooley Mitchell. It was hassle-free and returned results in a very quick turnaround. Schooley Mitchell did not charge a fee for the initial consultation and review. It only charges a fee when there is an agreement to switch services, and that fee is based on a percentage of the new realized savings to our company.

Additionally, Schooley Mitchell has offered to remit a percentage of any savings generated from their review back to the Chamber to support the Chamber in its efforts to improve the business climate of Northwest Houston. We support Schooley Mitchell for helping us save on our company's expenses, and for their generosity and commitment to the Chamber and the community of Northwest Houston.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Lieb, Jr.
