

To whom it may concern:

It is my pleasure to write this letter in recognition of a fantastic local organization, Bredin Centre for Career Advancement. Founded in 1976, Bredin Centre for Career Advancement is a non-profit organization that offers employment assistance, training, and career planning programs for adults and newcomers to Canada from four convenient locations.

Located in Edmonton, Alberta, Bredin Centre for Career Advancement assists you in finding a place of employment, no matter what stage you are in – unemployed, changing careers or anything in between. It offers individualized training to improve your resume, English or Microsoft Word skills. It also has a program to assist the homeless and a micro-lending program.

The team at Bredin Centre for Career Advancement are truly dedicated to helping people in any way they can. They are all kind, knowledgeable and experienced individuals committed to their jobs and the people they work with. They will go above and beyond to answer questions you may have throughout the process and always keep your best interests in mind.

I highly recommend Bredin Centre for Career Advancement to anyone looking for employment assistance, training, and career planning programs. Its amazing team will help point you in the right direction and provide the guidance you need.

Sincerely,
