Dear Andrea,

Kevin and I wanted to thank you again for providing Reeves Enterprises with a free Schooley Mitchell expense reduction analysis that resulted in more than $10,000 in projected annual savings. As you know, we run a pretty lean business of selling new and used store fixtures, so the reduction in merchant service costs makes a real difference in how our company is able to operate and support our customers.

I was surprised at how easy your process was and really appreciated all of your help implementing a new merchant service provider. We have been thrilled with the service we've received and appreciate that you will continue to look out for us as you audit future merchant service statements. It gives us peace of mind! We look forward to continuing the conversation on some of our other services as those vendor agreements expire.

Sincerely,
