

To Whom It May Concern,

I am very pleased to write this letter in recommendation of a great company, In Harmony Dance and Wellness in Newmarket Ontario. It provides a variety of dance classes to foster friendships, fitness, and fun.

Located in Newmarket, Ontario, In Harmony Dance and Wellness believes that a healthy, well-rounded life starts with a strong foundation of physical fitness, discipline, confidence and respect. They help create this foundation by offering high-quality ballet, contemporary, jazz and hip-hop classes, among many more.

Since 2005, In Harmony Dance and Wellness has fostered a family-like atmosphere in their studio. The entire team of instructors is highly trained and accredited and are passionate about dance in all forms. Owner Leah Anna Sanguinetti is an all-round dancer, teacher, choreographer, and studio director. She is certified in both competitive and recreational programs in Jazz, Acrobatics, Ballet, Lyrical, Modern, Hip Hop and Musical Theatre at many studios throughout the province.

With that in mind, I highly recommend In Harmony Dance and Wellness to anyone looking for an exceptional dance studio with whole body wellness in mind. You can be sure to find a class will help you develop the new and exciting skills you've been looking for.

Yours truly,

Stephan Lafreniere
