

To whom it may concern:

I would like to take this opportunity to write a letter of recommendation on behalf of an amazing professional, Julia Davis. Owner of Julia Davis Law Firm, Julia has more than 15 years of experience in the areas of real estate, adoption, estate planning, and estate administration.

Julia and her team strive to provide the Bloomington, Illinois community with affordable services relating to commercial and residential real estate, adoptions, guardianships, special needs trusts, revocable trusts, and more. They provide free 15-minute consultations to clients and use their resources and connections to ensure you get exactly the help you need.

I've known Julia for about a year now and have come to know her as the true industry professional she is. She has helped me with two recent real estate transactions and assisted with updating our trust documents. I have been nothing short of impressed by her service. She is prompt and courteous, often going out of her way to help in any way she can and taking the time to really get to know me and my unique situation.

I confidently recommend Julia and her team to anyone looking for legal services they can count on. Julia is a pleasure to deal with and always does her best to provide exceptional services, at a price that won't break the bank.

Sincerely,

David Dow
