

To whom it may concern,

It is our privilege to recommend Catholic Charities Washtenaw County, a respected organization that has served the community with compassion and integrity since 1959. Guided by a mission to uplift individuals and families in need, it has become an essential resource for people from all backgrounds throughout the region.

Catholic Charities Washtenaw County provides a comprehensive range of social services, including mental health counseling, crisis intervention, housing assistance, and family support programs. Each service is thoughtfully designed to meet people where they are, offering practical help and hope with empathy and respect. Its continued efforts reflect a steadfast commitment to service and community well-being.

The heart of Catholic Charities Washtenaw County is its exceptional team. From counselors and caseworkers to administrators and volunteers, each member demonstrates professionalism, kindness, and dedication. Their collective expertise and compassion have a lasting impact on the lives of those they assist every day.

Catholic Charities Washtenaw County remains a trusted and transformative presence in its community. With a long history of service, a diverse range of impactful programs, and a team that leads with integrity and care, it continues to make a meaningful difference in countless lives.

W/ Grace and Gratitude,

Adam Baker and David Dow
Strategic-Partners
Schooley Mitchell