

If you want to go fast, go alone.
If you want to go far, go together.
-African Proverb

As a result of Schooley Mitchell's analysis, a large Catholic Charities organization will be able to put over $500,000 back into its programs.

After a review of their waste disposal and wireless expenses, our cost reduction process yielded significant savings, which goes back into the organization's critical initiatives.

“Schooley Mitchell's support team under David Dow's leadership have been instrumental in helping us realize substantial annual cost savings in several functional operating areas.

The subject matter expertise they provided has been a welcome addition to our collective review and analysis of spending habits. The collaborative team communication, rhythm, and cadence has been excellent. David has created a partnership with our organization and implemented and managed a process that has resulted in cost savings and performance improvement.”

We know your resources are stretched thin. Schooley Mitchell takes the job of reviewing your expenses off your plate, with the objective of returning funds to invest in what matters most.

I'd love to talk with you about how Schooley Mitchell can deliver more program dollars back to your Catholic Charities organization at no up-front cost or risk.

