

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Goodwill of Western New York. This outstanding organization is widely recognized for its dedication to helping individuals build meaningful careers across a variety of industries. Its strong commitment to community support and personal growth has made a positive impact on countless lives.

Goodwill of Western New York offers a wide range of employment opportunities and support services for individuals from all backgrounds. Whether someone is living with a disability, transitioning back to civilian life after military service, or facing challenges in securing employment, the organization's professional and compassionate team is there every step of the way to guide and encourage them toward success.

The success of Goodwill of Western New York is driven by its exceptional staff, who work tirelessly to connect individuals with valuable resources and career opportunities. With more than 8,042 individuals served and over 1,847 people placed into competitive employment, the organization has clearly demonstrated its commitment to helping people confidently enter and succeed in the workforce.

I highly recommend Goodwill of Western New York for its remarkable community involvement and unwavering dedication to helping individuals achieve employment and financial stability. Its experienced and supportive staff make every person feel valued while ensuring they receive the guidance needed to find opportunities that best suit their goals and needs.

Sincerely,

Adam Baker and David Dow
Strategic-Partners
Schooley Mitchell