

To whom it may concern,

We are more than happy to offer this letter of recommendation on behalf of Gospel Center Rescue Mission. Since 1940, Gospel Center Rescue Mission has been a cornerstone of hope for individuals and families throughout San Joaquin County, providing critical support and a path toward renewed stability.

Gospel Center Rescue Mission delivers essential care and guidance to those experiencing homelessness and hardship. Its comprehensive range of services are designed to promote both immediate relief and long-term independence, including shelter, meals, addiction recovery programs, education, and transitional housing. Each initiative is thoughtfully developed to address the unique challenges individuals face.

At the heart of Gospel Center Rescue Mission is a compassionate and dedicated team. Staff and volunteers work tirelessly to serve every individual with dignity, respect, and understanding, fostering an environment where healing, growth, and transformation can truly take place. Their unwavering commitment to service, faith, and human connection is evident in every aspect of their work.

Gospel Center Rescue Mission stands as a trusted and inspiring force for positive change the community. Its enduring dedication to strengthening the community and uplifting those in need is both admirable and impactful, and we are proud to offer our strongest recommendation.

Sincerely,

Adam Baker and David Dow
Strategic-Partners
Schooley Mitchell