

To whom it may concern:

I am more than happy to write this letter of recommendation on behalf of Great Escape Coaching, a coaching and leadership development practice focused on helping business owners, leaders, and professionals navigate challenges and move toward greater success.

Great Escape Coaching offers individualized coaching, peer advisory groups, and leadership development opportunities designed to help clients work through challenges, improve decision-making, and stay accountable to their goals. Its guidance is practical and personalized, with an emphasis on identifying obstacles, developing actionable plans, and providing support throughout the process.

John Salajka is at the heart of Great Escape Coaching and brings extensive business experience to his work with clients. Through individual coaching and Vistage peer groups, John works with business owners and leaders to help them identify challenges, explore potential solutions, and take meaningful steps forward. His thoughtful approach, willingness to have difficult conversations, and focus on helping clients discover their own path are important parts of the value he provides.

I highly recommend Great Escape Coaching to business owners and professionals seeking thoughtful guidance, accountability, and practical support. Its personalized approach, experienced leadership, and dedication to helping clients navigate challenges make it a valuable resource for those looking to strengthen their businesses and leadership skills.

Sincerely,

Madeleine Borgia
