

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Ann C. Shipherd of AC Ship Global Trade Law, a legal and trade consulting practice based in Tampa, Florida. She is dedicated to helping businesses navigate the complexities of international commerce through professional guidance, regulatory expertise, and strategic solutions. With a focus on compliance and risk management, she supports companies involved in global trade and cross-border transactions.

Ann C. Shipherd offers a comprehensive range of services, including import and export compliance, customs law representation, tariff classification, duty mitigation strategies, and sanctions compliance. Her services also include assistance with customs detentions and seizures, supply chain management, transportation and logistics matters, and international trade regulations. She provides compliance training and policy development to help businesses manage their trade-related responsibilities.

A key strength of AC Ship Global Trade Law is Ann's extensive knowledge and experience in international trade law. As an international trade attorney and licensed customs broker, she brings valuable legal expertise and practical industry knowledge to complex trade challenges. Her commitment to professionalism, clear communication, and personalized guidance helps businesses address regulatory requirements and strengthen their operations.

I am pleased to recommend Ann C. Shipherd of AC Ship Global Trade Law to businesses seeking professional international trade and compliance support. Her combination of comprehensive services, specialized expertise, and dedication to client needs makes her a valuable resource for organizations engaged in global commerce.

Sincerely,

William McKissock
