

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to offer this letter of recommendation for The Conservatory at the Plains, a well-established community located in Aurora, Colorado. It is a peaceful and well-maintained neighborhood that offers residents a unique living experience, blending modern amenities with a rich historical backdrop. The community is adjacent to the Plains Conservation Center, providing residents with access to over 1,100 acres of open space and scenic trails.

The Conservatory at the Plains offers a range of services to enhance the quality of life for its residents. It provides trash and recycling collection, snow removal, and maintains common areas such as parks and trails. The community is managed by a dedicated property manager available on-site during office hours. Residents can utilize the online portal for payments, clubhouse reservations, and submitting improvement requests.

The strength of it lies not only in its services but also in the dedication and professionalism of its team. The Board of Directors comprises individuals with diverse backgrounds and a shared commitment to the community's well-being. Their collective efforts ensure that the community remains a desirable place to live, fostering a sense of belonging among residents.

I wholeheartedly recommend The Conservatory at the Plains as a standout community in Aurora. Its exceptional services, capable team, and well-rounded offerings make it a valuable part of the area and an excellent choice for those seeking a high-quality living experience.

Sincerely,

Matt Nagy
Optimization Specialist
Schooley Mitchell