

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to recommend Borns Group, a well-established marketing solutions company based in Aberdeen and Waterdown, South Dakota. Since its founding in 1991, it has grown into a trusted partner for businesses seeking effective, customized marketing and communications strategies.

Borns Group offers a wide range of services, including direct mail production, digital printing, and data-driven marketing. With a strong focus on precision, efficiency, and measurable results, it delivers campaigns that truly connect. What makes Borns Group stand out is its outstanding team.

The staff brings creativity, technical expertise, and a collaborative mindset to every project. They take the time to understand each client's brand, audience, and objectives, ensuring every solution is both thoughtful and strategic. Their attention to detail and commitment to quality are evident in every stage of the process.

Borns Group has built a solid reputation through decades of reliable service, innovative thinking, and strong client relationships. It continues to be a leader in the marketing space, and I am pleased to offer my full recommendation.

Sincerely,

Larry Nipon
