

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to recommend Olympia Pest Management for its dependable pest control services and strong commitment to customer care throughout the Olympia and Thurston County area. As a family-owned company, Olympia Pest Management has built a solid reputation for providing effective, customized pest solutions while maintaining a professional and customer-focused approach.

Olympia Pest Management offers a wide range of services, including rodent control, ant control, bed bug treatment, flea control, stinging insect removal, pest exclusion, and recurring maintenance programs. Their team takes the time to thoroughly inspect each property and create personalized treatment plans designed to both eliminate current pest issues and help prevent future infestations. The company is also recognized as a QualityPro and GreenPro certified business, reflecting its commitment to safe and environmentally responsible pest management practices.

What sets Olympia Pest Management apart is its focus on honest communication, reliable service, and long-term customer relationships. Owners Miles and Samantha Malone, along with their experienced staff, emphasize personalized service and community involvement while consistently delivering responsive support to local homeowners and businesses. Customers throughout the Olympia area frequently praise the company for its professionalism, fair pricing, and friendly service.

I highly recommend Olympia Pest Management for its professionalism, expertise, and dedication to helping customers maintain safe, comfortable, and pest-free homes and properties.

Sincerely,
