

To whom it may concern:

I am pleased to recommend Paragon Bank, a community-focused financial institution founded in 2005 with a strong emphasis on personalized service, lasting relationships, and understanding the individual needs of its customers. With offices across six markets, Paragon has grown while maintaining the values of integrity, dedication, and knowledge that have guided its approach from the beginning.

Paragon provides a variety of financial solutions for individuals and businesses, including personal and business banking, commercial lending, mortgage services, private banking, cash management, and small business financing. Its range of offerings allows customers to access banking and lending solutions suited to different financial goals and circumstances.

The people at Paragon are an important part of its customer-focused approach. Its experienced professionals bring financial knowledge, dedication, and a genuine interest in helping customers achieve their goals. Team members also take an active role in the communities they serve through the ACTS initiative, volunteering with nonprofit organizations and contributing their time and expertise to local causes.

I highly recommend Paragon Bank to individuals and businesses seeking personalized banking, knowledgeable financial guidance, and dependable service. Its experienced team, diverse financial solutions, and dedication to its customers and communities make it a valuable financial resource.

Sincerely,
