

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to recommend Saskatchewan Public Works Association, a leading organization dedicated to advancing public works initiatives across Saskatchewan. It has earned a strong reputation in Saskatoon for its commitment to professional development, resource support, and the promotion of best practices in municipal infrastructure. Through its work, it plays a pivotal role in helping communities enhance efficiency, safety, and sustainability in their public works operations.

The Saskatchewan Public Works Association offers a diverse range of services designed to empower public works professionals and municipalities. These include professional training programs, hands-on workshops, conferences, networking events, and advocacy for infrastructure policy and development. It provides practical tools and resources that enable municipalities to implement effective and sustainable solutions tailored to their unique needs.

A defining strength of the organization is its talented and dedicated team. Its staff combine deep expertise in public works management with a collaborative approach that encourages knowledge sharing, professional growth, and innovative problem-solving. Their commitment ensures that programs are not only informative but also actionable, helping members translate learning into tangible improvements for their communities.

I recommend the Saskatchewan Public Works Association as a trusted and dynamic leader in the public works sector. Through its comprehensive services and the expertise of its team it fosters professional excellence, and contributes to more resilient and well-managed communities across Saskatchewan.

Sincerely,

Kevin Litwiller
