Client Testimonials

What our clients say about us

Nonprofit Association Client

We engaged Schooley Mitchell to help us improve our bottom line. The unique, risk-free offer to share in any savings they would find was very appealing, and there would be no fee if there were no savings. We were also attracted to being in complete control of whether recommendations are implemented or not.

Schooley Mitchell conducted its analysis and lowered our telecom fees by 61%. It gives us peace of mind that they will continue to monitor the market and revisit these costs with any new information that could be beneficial to us.

We recommend Schooley Mitchell to any organization that is looking to improve their costs. Since they are the experts, they will either find you savings or give you peace of mind that you have the best pricing for these services. To us, this is well worth the minimal investment of an hour or so of any organization's time.

Nonprofit Organization Client

We had the pleasure of working with Schooley Mitchell. We engaged them to audit our merchant services, waste, and compressed gases expenses. As a nonprofit, every penny counts, so we looked forward to seeing what savings could be found.

Schooley Mitchell analyzed our invoices to determine whether savings could be found. We were thrilled when they came back to us and presented the report showing that they were able to identify savings of over 30% in Merchant Service fees and 35% in Compressed Gases.

We'll be able to repurpose this money in our budget, which will benefit our organization. Our waste was fully optimized, but they will continue to monitor and pursue any opportunity for savings throughout our relationship. We would strongly suggest that anyone looking to reduce costs get in touch.
