

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Specialty Tax Group. Based in Alpharetta, Georgia, it has built a strong reputation for helping businesses and property owners reduce tax liability and improve cash flow through specialized tax planning strategies. It has become recognized for its expertise that help clients maximize financial benefits while maintaining compliance.

Specialty Tax Group specializes in cost segregation studies, research and development tax credits, energy efficiency incentives, fixed asset reviews, accounting method changes, tangible property reviews, and state tax credit programs. It works alongside CPAs, business owners, real estate investors, and other professionals to uncover opportunities that may otherwise be overlooked. Its multidisciplinary team utilizes industry expertise and technology-driven analysis to deliver customized solutions tailored to each client's unique financial situation and business objectives.

Its team is committed to transparency, accuracy, and client-focused service which is emphasized thorough analysis, audit-ready deliverables, and clear communication throughout every engagement. By combining technical expertise with a collaborative approach, it helps clients better understand available tax-saving opportunities while providing practical strategies designed to support long-term financial success and improved cash flow.

I highly recommend Specialty Tax Group for its professionalism, tax planning expertise, and dedication to helping businesses and property owners maximize tax benefits, improve cash flow, and achieve stronger financial outcomes through specialized tax credits, incentives, and deduction strategies.

Sincerely,

Kevin Stahr
