

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation on behalf of 7 Streets Financial, operating in Livermore, California, who are dedicated to paving a road towards better retirement.

7 Streets Financial focuses on helping clients pursue their retirement goals by developing custom plans to seamlessly transition into this next chapter of life. Through maximizing monthly incomes, minimizing tax liabilities and developing a monthly income stream that lasts a lifetime, 7 Streets Financial can help you pursue your long-term goals.

Behind their streamlined process is a set of highly knowledgeable professionals who use persistence, dedication and integrity to best suit the needs of their clients. The team's understanding of the complexities of retirement planning ensures that every client receives thoughtful, tailored strategies aimed at meeting their unique financial needs.

I wholeheartedly recommend 7 Streets Financial. With its exceptional team and client-centric approach, it stands as a trusted partner for anyone seeking comprehensive financial planning and retirement guidance.

Sincerely,

Morris Ng
