

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Longevity Effect, a remarkable business located in Tulsa, Oklahoma. They focus on enhancing overall health and wellness to help prevent future illness.

At Longevity Effect, a wide spectrum of familiar treatment options are available, from chiropractic treatment to acupuncture. Longevity Effect hosts state-of-the-art health and wellness care options, such as ozone therapy, magnesphere, full-spectrum infrared sauna, and more.

The team at Longevity Effect really sets them apart in the health and wellness industry. Their commitment and support to their clients and their innovative approaches to patient care, create an unparalleled environment in the health and wellness industry.

It is with great enthusiasm that I recommend Longevity Effect to anyone seeking health and wellness care. The personalized treatment plans and experienced team help patients escape stress and pain, achieving complete mind and body wellness.

Sincerely,

Ken Poskey
Strategic Partner
Schooley Mitchell