

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation on behalf of The Alexandria Chamber of Commerce, known locally as The Chamber ALX. Located in Alexandria, Virginia, it is an advocacy-based nonprofit and a cornerstone of the local business community, recognized for its commitment to supporting growth, connection, and collaboration among area businesses.

The Chamber ALX proudly supports more than 875 member businesses, from one-of-a-kind small enterprises to global organizations. It offers a variety of programs and events designed to promote economic development, foster professional relationships, and strengthen the local business environment. Through its initiatives, it continues to serve as a trusted resource and voice for the Alexandria business community.

At the foundation of its success is a dedicated and highly skilled team that exemplifies professionalism and passion. Each member is committed to serving the community with excellence, whether advocating for business-friendly policies, hosting impactful events, or providing members with meaningful visibility and support. Their enthusiasm and dedication are reflected in every aspect of their work.

I highly recommend The Chamber ALX to anyone seeking to connect, collaborate, and grow within the Alexandria business community. Membership provides valuable resources and opportunities while contributing to the continued vitality and success of local commerce.

Sincerely,

Marty Thomas
Business Optimization Specialist
Schooley Mitchell