

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Kesco Supply, a leading provider of high-quality restaurant kitchen supplies based in Bryan, Texas. Founded in 1975, Kesco Supply offers an extensive inventory, ensuring that restaurants and foodservice establishments have access to durable and reliable products tailored to their specific needs.

Kesco Supply specializes in providing a wide range of products, including commercial-grade kitchen equipment, utensils, and maintenance supplies. It offers custom kitchen designs and commercial kitchen services, with a free consultation to help clients achieve their ideal kitchen setup. With deep industry knowledge and a commitment to excellence, Kesco consistently delivers top-notch products and services.

Kesco Supply is also known for its exceptional customer service. The company fosters clear communication and works closely with clients to understand their requirements, offering personalized solutions that meet their specific needs. Their dedication to timely delivery and cost-effective options further strengthens their reputation as a trusted partner in the foodservice industry. The team's attention to detail and expertise ensures that every purchase leads to efficiency and reliability in kitchen operations.

I highly recommend Kesco Supply. Its combination of quality products, knowledgeable staff, and outstanding customer service makes it an exceptional choice for any restaurant kitchen supply needs.

Sincerely,

Robert Walton IV
Strategic-Partner
Schooley Mitchell