

To whom it may concern,

I would like to take this opportunity to write a letter of recommendation in recognition of a great company, Framingham Carpet Center. Family-owned and operated, Framingham Carpet Center provides quality flooring services to Framingham, Massachusetts, and the surrounding areas.

Established nearly 30 years ago, Framingham Carpet Center features an extensive range of flooring products including hardwood, laminate, vinyl, carpet, area rugs, and more, so there is something to suit every style and budget. It also provides free estimates, installation and repair services, furniture removal, and design consultations.

At Framingham Carpet Center, it isn't just the products and services that are impressive, the staff is as well. Each one is highly experienced and has valuable knowledge of the industry and its products to provide clients with expert guidance and advice. They are happy to help answer any questions you may have and make recommendations when you aren't quite sure what best fits your needs.

If you're in the market for new flooring, I highly recommend reaching out to Framingham Carpet Center. No matter if the project is big or small, Framingham Carpet Center offers endless choices with unmatched customer service.
