

To whom it may concern:

I would like to take this opportunity to write a letter of recommendation on behalf of Oceana Cottages. Built in the 1950s, Oceana Cottages is a series of beautiful beachfront cottages in North Truro, Massachusetts.

Oceana Cottages offers several different options to suit any need and budget. Each one has an amazing oceanfront view and private beach access, and is equipped with full efficiency kitchens, keyless door locks and free Wi-Fi. It is also located just four miles from Provincetown, so guests can enjoy a variety of local restaurants, tourist attractions and bird watching areas without having to go far.

While the accommodations at Oceana Cottages are some of the best around, it is truly the staff that make your visit above and beyond. They are all kind, caring and a genuine pleasure to interact with. It is easy to see they are passionate about what they do by the state of the property, as everything is always well cleaned and in its place. They are always happy to answer questions or make recommendations, whether you're looking for something to do or somewhere to eat.

I highly recommend Oceana Cottages to anyone looking to get away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. It's family operated and features a host of amenities, so you're sure to have a great experience without breaking the bank.

Sincerely,
