

To whom it may concern,

I would like to take a moment to write this letter of recommendation on behalf of a great company, the Kinsley Group. Headquartered in East Granby, Connecticut, Kinsley Group has been proudly providing residential and industrial power systems, along with expert repair services, since 1964.

Over the years, Kinsley Group has earned a strong reputation for integrity and professionalism. It focuses on delivering dependable energy solutions and hands-on support for a variety of power needs, with a mission to set the standard for energy systems performance and service. It is also a value-added provider of equipment and generator repair for some of the highest-quality distributed energy systems available.

Standing behind the Kinsley Group is a team of true energy professionals. Each member is highly skilled and thoroughly trained in their respective fields. They work tirelessly to exceed customer expectations, demonstrate a deep sense of pride in their work, and uphold a commitment to uncompromising excellence.

I highly recommend the Kinsley Group to anyone seeking reliable, long-term solutions for their power systems. With its customer-first approach, technical expertise, and decades of experience, you can rest assured knowing your power systems are in the best hands.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Horn
