

To whom it may concern,

I am more than happy to write this letter of recommendation on behalf of a great business, Horses Atelier. Founded in 2012 by Claudia Dey and Heidi Sopinka, Horses Atelier is a Toronto-based fashion company known for delivering expertly curated women's garments.

Horses Atelier combines its core values of beauty, utility, wildness, and endurance to create clothing that empowers all who wear it. Its product line includes a wide range of clothing, and it has been featured in Vogue, Elle, and Goop. Every product is locally sewn, ensuring garments are created with minimal environmental impact and employees are compensated fairly. Lastly, at Horses Atelier, each employee is committed to designing inclusive garments that embrace the natural capabilities of women. They are a pleasure to interact with and always take the time to listen and get to know their clients.

Since 2013, Horses Atelier has donated a portion of all sales to the Clean Clothes Campaign, helping to improve the working conditions for women in the global garment industry. It also supports the Native Women's Association of Canada, Black Lives Matter Canada, Sistering, and many more.

I highly recommend Horses Atelier for women who want to make a statement with their personal style but also feel good about where their clothing came from. With Horses Atelier, you can rest assured knowing you will find the perfect outfit for any occasion while supporting an amazing business.

Sincerely,
