

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to recommend Sugar & Spice Draperies and Shades, a full-service custom window treatment and soft furnishings workroom located in League City, Texas. Founded in 2017 by Rachel Lusk and Terri Booser, it has earned a strong reputation for exceptional craftsmanship, creativity, and personalized service.

Sugar & Spice creates beautifully tailored draperies, shades, and soft furnishings that enhance both residential and commercial spaces. Each piece is thoughtfully designed and meticulously crafted to reflect each client's unique style, seamlessly combining function and aesthetics to elevate any interior.

At the heart of Sugar & Spice are its founders, Rachel Lusk and Terri Booser, whose combined experience and eye for design set the standard for quality and professionalism. Their hands-on approach and dedication ensure every project is completed with precision, care, and an unwavering commitment to client satisfaction.

Sugar & Spice Draperies and Shades continues to stand out as a trusted leader in custom design. With its talented team, personalized service, and enduring passion for excellence, it transforms spaces into places of beauty, comfort, and individuality.

Sincerely,

Tania Cheng
Business Optimization Specialist
Schooley Mitchell