To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to highly recommend David Burke at Schooley Mitchell for his exceptional work in providing us with online payment solutions. When we began our company, we were quick to sign up with a big-name vendor. We paid for that naivety with fees. David Burke came highly recommended, and because of his team, we've been able to reduce our fees by half compared to our previous provider. The vendors the team provided were also screened to ensure they would integrate with our existing tech stack, providing the much-needed head start on course correction.

Since partnering with David and Schooley Mitchell, our business has flourished. We have grown from a small startup to operating over 10 storefronts across 8 states, with our employee count nearly tripling. The savings we captured through David's solutions were crucial to our success, allowing us to reinvest in our growth and expansion. It is partnerships like the one we have with David that have been instrumental in our ability to thrive. I wholeheartedly endorse David Burke for his dedication, professionalism, and the substantial positive impact he has had on our business.

Sincerely,

Austin Taylor | Director of Marketing
