

To whom it may concern,

I strongly recommend working with Zach Cheney of Schooley Mitchell. We engaged him to audit our payment processing expenses. We were curious about Schooley Mitchell's no risk approach to finding savings.

Our mission at PR Aesthetics is to help you age beautifully and naturally, through a total body approach. We provide the most advanced services and technologies to help you achieve your aesthetic goals. Each treatment, fitness class, retail product, and technology we offer has been carefully curated to ensure maximum results.

Zach's team analyzed our payment processing invoices to determine whether or not savings could be found. The process was quite seamless on our end. All that was required was a quick conversation about our set up, access to our invoices and contracts, and then Schooley Mitchell did all the work from there.

When Zach and his team came back and presented the report, I was thrilled that they were able to reduce my rates by 0.05%. The savings were minimal, but now we have peace of mind that our rates are fully optimized. Our merchant services system is integrated with our scheduling software, so we knew it would be difficult to lower our current rates. Schooley Mitchell locked in those lower rates, and because of smaller savings, Zach ended up giving us 100% of savings found.

Overall, my experience with Schooley Mitchell and Zach was fantastic, and I would strongly suggest anyone looking to reduce costs to get in touch.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Smith, Owner, PR Aesthetics
