To whom it may concern:

I can't say enough good things about working with Mario Robles, Strategic Partner at Schooley Mitchell. We brought Mario in to review the telecom expenses for our small business, and right away he made the process clear, simple, and stress-free. He explained up front that the initial analysis came at no cost to us, and that we'd have the final say on any recommendations.

We are a family-owned insurance agency in Austin with deep roots in the community. Any savings we uncover help us immensely, and Mario understood that right from the start. Once the analysis and vendor negotiations were complete, Mario sat down with us and walked us through a detailed, easy-to-follow report. Schooley Mitchell ultimately found a massive 23% savings for us. Even better, their team handled the entire process, which freed us up to focus on running our daily operations.

We're extremely happy with the service Mario and his team provided. I'd recommend them to any business looking to cut costs and strengthen their bottom line. Knowing they'll continue monitoring our invoices and watching for new savings opportunities gives us peace of mind, and lets us stay focused on what we do best: serving our clients.
