

To whom it may concern,

I would like to take a moment to recommend Neil Schwan of Schooley Mitchell. We engaged Neil to audit our merchant services expenses. Neil explained that the initial analysis came at no cost, and we had the final say on any and all changes.

Superior Logistics is a privately owned and operated business in The Chicago Area. Our team has decades of experience in the Trade Show Industry, providing customized shipping and logistics for events and trade shows. Because we're a service business, any extra room in our budget has an impact on us.

After the initial analysis and vendor negotiations were completed, Neil set up a meeting to review the possible savings options that Schooley Mitchell had uncovered. The report was thorough and well laid out and gave us multiple options to choose from. With the option we ended up choosing, their analysis identified 37% savings in credit card processing fees.

We are delighted with the quality-of-service Schooley Mitchell has provided, especially considering all the work was done on their end.

I stand behind my recommendation of Neil Schwan and Schooley Mitchell for any business or organization interested in reducing their costs and increasing their bottom line. Having them keep an eye on our invoices while always looking out for increased savings opportunities allows us to focus on more important business priorities.
