

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter to express appreciation for the exceptional services provided by Strocchia Iron Works. Its commitment to quality, craftsmanship, and professionalism has consistently exceeded expectations and they are a reliable partner for any construction project you may have.

Strocchia Iron Works has been a cornerstone in the steel fabrication industry since 1922, serving clients in New York City, Brooklyn, Queens, Long Island, Westchester, and Fairfield. The company's extensive experience and dedication to excellence make it a trusted partner for any project requiring structural steel, ornamental ironwork, stairs and railings, and miscellaneous metals.

What sets Strocchia Iron Works apart is not just its impressive history but its unwavering commitment to customer satisfaction. The company's mission, to be "a quality steel contractor by providing superior customer services, delivering steel products and services promptly, and continuously improving our methods to increase efficiency in meeting the design intent," resonates in every interaction and project they undertake.

The team at Strocchia Iron Works, from their trained steel construction project managers and engineers to their certified welders, demonstrates a level of expertise and dedication that is truly commendable. Its modern facility, equipped with the latest technology, allows it to produce high-quality industrial-strength structural, commercial, and ornamental steel.

Whether it's structural steel fabrication, welding, cutting, bending, or the supply of various steel components, Strocchia Iron Works has consistently demonstrated expertise and reliability. For that reason, I highly recommend Strocchia Iron Works for any project.

Sincerely yours,

Luca Servino
